INTRODUCTION: BY SALLY LLOYD-JONES

Happy Nearly Almost Christmas!

What do you love most about Christmas?

Most of us say, PRESENTS! And probably all the grown-ups will laugh and want us to say something more spiritual.

But actually, do you know what? You're right. That IS the best, most important thing about Christmas.

Because, you see, Christmas is all about a present—a gift. The greatest, most magnificent gift there has ever been ...

Christmas is very hard to wait for, isn't it? Waiting to open all those presents—it's so difficult. Especially when you're little.

We count down the days. We can't wait.

But do you know how long God's people had to wait for Christmas? How long they had to wait for the gift God promised them?

Weeks?

No.

Months?

Um. Longer.

Years, then?

Even longer than that.

They had to wait for centuries and centuries! Can you imagine how excited they were when at last Christmas came?

When do you think Christmas begins?
Does it begin in Bethlehem?
Or with the Angel Gabriel visiting Mary?
Or does it begin with a bright star shining on a little stable?

Actually, the story of Christmas begins long, long ago—before there were even any stars in the sky at all.

Christmas begins in the heart of God.

Back in the very beginning, God had a magnificent dream inside his heart.

He made his children to share in his Forever Happiness and the world to be our perfect home. But we lost it all when we decided we didn't need him, when we decided we could be happy without him.
And everything broke—in our hearts and in his world when sin and sadness and tears came in.

But God had a plan—a magnificent dream.
One day, he would get his children back. One day, he himself would come to rescue them and heal their broken hearts. One day, he promised, Christmas would come!

All through the Bible, all through the long years, God has been waiting for exactly the right time to send his great gift. He has been waiting for Christmas!

From the moment Adam and Eve left
the garden he whispered the promise, “It will not always be so.” To Abraham, he promised one day a child will come to bring laughter to the whole world. He promised Joseph, David, Isaiah. One day, he will send us a Good Shepherd. A Brave Hero. A Young Prince. A Mighty
King. A Great Rescuer.

A Child.

And every story whispers His name.

Christmas is when, at last, everything is ready. The time has come, at last, for God to give us his great gift.

The days leading up to Christmas are called “Advent.” Advent means the “arrival.” It means the long waiting is almost over ...

As we wait for Christmas, we’ll go on a journey together. We’ll read a story every day, decorate the tree, and tell the story of God’s Secret Rescue plan—from the very beginning ... and wait, along with God’s people ...

And on Christmas morning? PRESENTS!

And there is the greatest, most magnificent gift there has ever been—wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.

Sleeping under the stars that he made.

The baby who would rescue the world is born!

Happy Christmas!

ADVENT SOUNDTRACK

Sally compiled some of her favorite Christmas songs to accompany you on the journey to Christmas with The Jesus Storybook Bible this Advent. She said this about her Jesus Storybook Bible Advent Soundtrack:

“I start with carols from Kings because that is Christmas for me—and move on to some of my favorite contemporary songwriters. (Full disclosure: quite a few of them happen to also be my friends but I’m not biased or anything.) All of the songs are telling the Christmas story. So I thought it might be a wonderful resource to have—an Advent soundtrack—as you read by yourself or together as a family—or as you decorate the tree—or really anytime at all in the day. I hope you enjoy them as much as I do. My prayer is that as we journey to Christmas together, these songs help prepare our hearts. As we celebrate the Young Prince who loved us and came to rescue us... Happy Advent! (PS right at the end is a bonus: two songs from my children’s album: BIG SONGS FOR LITTLE ONES.)”
