Back-2-Back Drawing

Format: Online or in-person
Requirements: Low tech or No tech
Time: 10-15 minutes depending on number of rounds

Goal:
For group members to experience receiving directions without non-verbal cues.
To develop trust between group members.

Materials

- Clipboards
- Blank Paper
- Pencils
- List of items to draw

Instructions if in-person

Set Up

- Have group divide into pairs
- Each pair sits back-to-back (6 ft. apart if desired)
- Give one person in each pair a piece of paper and a pencil.
- The other person will be given the list of words.

Directions

The individual with the list of words has to get her partner to draw the chosen word on her sheet, using only verbal directions.

When she is done describing the item, the person drawing will share their masterpiece with the group and see how close they are to the chosen word.

Instructions if online:

One "Direction-Giver"

- One person could be the direction giver; all the rest are drawers. No one else is allowed to speak as they try to draw the shape the direction giver is describing. Afterwards, have everyone compare their drawings.
